

What is Hepatitis A?

Hepatitis A is a liver infection caused by the Hepatitis A virus. Anyone can catch it!

What are the symptoms?

Yellow skin or eyes

Belly pain

Nausea

Very tired

Dark pee and/or gray poop

Throwing up

Don't want to eat

Joint pain

Fever

Who is at risk?

Gay and bisexual men · People with substance use disorder
People experiencing homelessness · People recently in jail

What can you do?

Get vaccinated · Wash your hands a lot

Don't have sex with people who have Hepatitis A · Don't share food, drinks, smokes, vapes, toothbrushes, forks, or spoons

More information

Department of Health & Human Services
Division of Public Health Services
Bureau of Infectious Disease Control
29 Hazen Drive
Concord, NH 03301 - 6504
Phone: 603 - 271 - 4496
Fax: 603 - 271 - 0545